Where Faith and Community Meet

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth.
Worship the Lord with gladness; come into his presence with singing.

Know that the Lord is God. It is he that made us, and we are his; we are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving, and his courts with praise. Give thanks to him, bless his name.

For the Lord is good; his steadfast love endures forever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

-Psalm 100

A Service of Christian Worship

Third Sunday of Easter

April 19, 2026

Welcome Grey Pennell

One Come, let's praise God together!

All For God is great, and worthy of our praise!

One Let's tell stories of God's power and majesty,

All His mighty acts throughout history: for God is great, and worthy of our praise!

One Let's pass these stories along to our children and grandchildren, so that they, too, may come to know and love our God.

All For God is great, and worthy of our praise!

Jonah was furious. He lost his temper. He yelled at God, "God! I knew it—when I was back home, I knew this was going to happen! That's why I ran off to Tarshish! I knew you were sheer grace and mercy, not easily angered, rich in love, and ready at the drop of a hat to turn your plans of punishment into a program of forgiveness - Jonah 4:1-3

* Please Stand As You Are Able

If You're Pondering on the Resurrection ..... Consider these accounts

To the Disciples in the Upper Room: Jesus' appearances to His disciples in the upper room, where He shows them His wounds and eats with them, are pivotal. These moments, described in Luke 24:36-49 and John 20:19-23, reinforce the physical reality of the resurrection and Jesus' peace to those who were fearful and uncertain.

To Thomas and the Other Disciples: Perhaps one of the most famous encounters is with Doubting Thomas (John 20:24-29), who insists on seeing Jesus' wounds before believing in His resurrection. This appearance speaks profoundly about faith, doubt, and the blessedness of those who believe without seeing.
